UPCOMING EVENTS

Dear SHOJ Families:

I really hope that you take 3 minutes and watch the “news story” from some of our 8th graders. They are working hard to prepare for the carnival held during Catholic Schools Week. Money raised will go to support our school doing an All School Serve Day. On the attached flier, you will see that we are asking all our families to support the work that they are doing by purchasing raffle tickets and other donations.

I started reading the book once, How the Catholic Church Built Western Civilization and was thinking about that in relation to the carnival and even the Archbishop’s Call to Share Campaign that started last weekend. Regarding that campaign, I turned it around and thought of how our Archdiocese has helped me.

Jason and I have been married over 27 years and we still talk about the marriage prep experience we had through that program. Jason was not Catholic at the time and it helped us understand how big of a role God needs to play in our marriage. Our children all went to Catholic schools, where they received great educations at schools supported by the School office. Their faith grew as they attended camps at Prairie Star Ranch. Jason eventually joined the church with great formation. We continue to learn and grow in our faith through many educational programs. The Archdiocese is doing a lot to support George as he studies and discerns the Archdiocesan priesthood. Our other kids were involved at the St. Lawrence Center at KU and were supported in their faith during their college years.

Many of the conversion, outreach, stewardship, education and evangelization programs the appeal supports has touched my life. There are also many programs that the appeal supports that I am thankful that I don’t need to participate in but am comforted knowing that they are there if I or someone I love needs them. Here are some links to the videos from the Archdiocese on the Call to Share appeal. <https://www.calltoshare.org/call-to-share/2016-templates/rb-test/acts-appeal-video>

Our Carnival, which will help us support specific areas of Catholic Charities, is built on the same concept. If we all do some part, even if it is small, the impact will be huge. Just like Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish, if everyone gives some time, talent and treasure, it will have a big impact. We are truly blessed!

Be the Light!

Attention 8th Grade Parents!

Thank you to the many families who submitted 8th grade baby/toddler photos for the yearbook! We are still in need of photos from about 20 families to complete the pages.

For those who have not yet submitted their photos, here are the details:

We are making the yearbook for this school year, and we need a picture of each 8th grade student as a baby or toddler to put below their yearbook picture to see how much they have grown over the years.

So, please email a high-quality jpg baby or toddler picture of your 8th grade child to Mrs. Barragree at ami.barragree@shoj.org or send a printed photo to be scanned, so we can put them in the yearbook. Prints will be returned to you. Whatever the format of your photo, please include your child's first and last name!

Thank you!
